A Sincere "Thank You"!

To everyone who donated an item or made a monetary contribution to the Gabriel Project baby item drive last weekend. While we are a small community, there is real need here. We want to be able to assist families when they come to us. Thank you for making this possible. Please keep praying about whether God is calling you to be involved in the Gabriel Project. Also, did you notice the new sign for the Gabriel Project? It's between the church and the parish hall.

Congrats to those making their "Big Communion"

We wish a hearty congratulations to those young boys and girls receiving their "Big Communion" today (at the 10:00 am Mass):

Gracie Chatman
Jesika Chatman
Clanton Frank
Blaise LeJune
Erin Manuel
Madisyn Montou
Joshua Pitre
Adalyn Thibodeaux
Taylor Thigpen
Benjamin Thomas
Landon Vidrine
Andrew Vizena

BSA . . . Got'er Done . . . early . . . again!

For the third consecutive year the BSA quota has been achieved in less than one month! I thank you for your tremendous generosity. Practically speaking, this means we are finished with BSA collections for this fiscal year. If you intended to make a contribution to the BSA but were not yet able to, do feel free to make a contribution at any point. Just label it BSA and we'll send it to the Diocese. (Or you could put it toward the SJoA "Building Fund" . . . soon to be established). At any rate, I offer a resounding and sincere word of gratitude to all for helping SJoA to complete the BSA at lightning speed . . . again!

Adorers Needed for Wednesday

We are in need of adorers at a few of the hours on Wednesdays for adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. There is a sheet at the entrance of the church. We need at least two adorers per hour (but at least three is ideal). We really need folks to commit to those hours that are highlighted. Remember: the more time we spend with Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, the more we (and our parish) will experience transformation. There is no more powerful means to sanctification than the Blessed Sacrament. We must draw near to Him, frequently.
